

OUR TAX SERVICES

Our comprehensive consideration of tax at NKSFB is a fundamental component in the overall financial plan for each of our clients. We take the proper steps to guarantee the impact of tax is minimized and that investment strategies are maximized for financial well-being.

Our extensive knowledge and tax law experience enables NKSFB to ensure our clients realize the full potential in all financial planning opportunities.

We manage the preparation of individual, corporate, partnership, trust and other types of returns, as well as coordinate scheduled payments and represent our clients before federal and state tax authorities as required.

NKSFB tax experts specialize in high net worth individuals and their needs. Our tax clients include some of the most successful people in entertainment, sports, and the music industry, as well as business executives, and professionals.
